Church Fair This Weekend

Our Lady of the Gulf's annual church fair will be held this weekend, June 23 and 24, on Our Lady of the Gulf School grounds.

There will be games for every member of the family. Various booths will lend variety for the evening; included will be candy, cake, country store, gold fish, and parcel post.

There will be a hot dog stand, popcorn, snowball, cotton candy and various soft drinks. Also featured will be entertainment for adults in the school cafeteria.

Andy Becker, general chairman, is asking the public to come out for an evening of fun.

Extradition Papers Filed

Deputy Sheriff Gerald V. Price reported this week extradition papers for the return to Michigan of two suspects in the $10 robbery of Beach Front Drug Store and Western Union office, have been forwarded to Governor Ross Barnett.

The two, identified by Price as Mrs. Charlotte Gan, 37, formerly of Texas, and George Crawford Kerr, 38, of New Orleans, pleaded innocent to Hancock County fugitives warrant charging them with burglary and grand larceny in recent arraignment in Memphis, the officer said.

According to Price, the two suspects were arrested June 2 by Memphis police when they were allegedly attempting to cash a Western Union money order said to correspond to one of those stolen in the burglary.

A hearing for the two, Price added, has been set for July 10 before Memphis officers.

Funerals were held at the place of many of the local organizations working to improve the county, the Chairman emphasized.

Although agencies of the Federal Government will help with it in several ways, this program will be defined and put into action by local governments.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gustafson only married a week ago went fishing Sunday. They caught a mess of salt water fish. Congratulations.

Perre Quintini and Jimmy O'Brien have been getting their share of speckled trout out on the keys, but they say the sharks are as plentiful as the trout.

Our old friend Eddie Fayard who makes some real fly fishing baits is making them better than ever. Eddie lives in Waveland and will be glad to see his old friends and can give you some good pointers on how to use them. You can improve your fishing by meeting Eddie.

Son Taconi says he has lots of live bait right now. Son operates his fishing camp on Front St. right in the heart of town, and is at his place at 2:00 a. m. most every day. This should be good news to bait fishermen who fish along the R. R. and highway bridges. He also has skiffs for rent.

Mr. and Mrs. Channing Fell were over for the weekend, they are big fish eaters but say they can't find time to go after them.

Mr. N. L. Carter, a prominent retired business man and a resident of Waveland for many years, will be the M. C. for the Elwood Memorial Park Dedication on Sunday, July 1st at 2:00 p.m.

Miss Carol Bourgeois, Rodeo Queen, motored to the Capitol in Baton Rouge Monday. She was taken there by police escort.

Carol was received by Mayor Christian of Baton Rouge and received the key to the City.

She was then escorted to the Capitol where she met Governor Jimmy Davis and was given the key to the State and received an Honorary Citizenship.

Governor Davis introduced Carol to the Senate and House of Representatives.

Carol presented fishing rods to Governor Davis and Mayor Christian.

Carol also appeared on T. V. stations Channel 2 and Channel 9 of Baton Rouge some fishing at the Bay soon. They have been going to Leesville and Hopedale and usually get their share of fish.

The Boy Scouts had a real Camporee last weekend. About 65 boys and scouts participated.

Scouts did a good job of judging etc. Teddy Stechmann, LaVerne Pahliman, junior Johnon, Dec Elliott and the new Scout Master of Troop 220 did a wonderful job of handling the boys.

The competing Troops were evenly matched and scores were close. Troop 217 came out first however. Keep up the good work boys.

Pearl River is clearing again, after having been bad due to a lot of rain up at Jackson.

Fishing in this stream should improve right along.

Red fish and small specks are being caught up Jordan River. Specks are coming in at half moon, 3 and 9 Bayous.

Speckle trout fishing should improve in these places from now on.

Understand that Bob Gray, operator at the Eagle is about to leave us. Bob enjoys his fishing. Good luck on your new assignment, Bob.

Alphonse Lind has been getting some nice specks according to reports. Lind says he would rather fish than eat. Can't blame you!

Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was the setting for the Sunday afternoon wedding of Miss Catherine Ann Matherne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis F. Matherne and Kenneth R. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. James P. Miller of Watsonville, California.

The Rev. Adrian Mercier performed the double ring ceremony. The main altar held vases of white gladioli with tall white baskets of blossoms on either side. Arrangements of white gladioli decorated the side altars.

Professor Joseph Hemmersbach played a program of liturgical music.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a silk peau de soie and Chantilly lace bridal gown fashioned with full skirt with lace appliques embroidered in seed pearls and iridescent sequins which swept into a chapel train. The fitted bodice embroidered with seed pearls and sequins, featured a scalloped V neckline and elbow length sleeves. Her finger-tip veil of illusion was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley centered with an orchid and entwined with a crystal rosary.

STENNIS LEADS FIGHT AGAINST CUTTING NG UNITS

Senator John Stennis recently led a vigorous floor fight against proposals by the Secretary of Defense and the President to cut National Guard and Army Reserve units by 10 per cent.

Stennis declared, "The Berlin call-up last Fall was one of the first demonstrations of the value of the National Guard and the Reserves we have ever had in this country, and it proves the need and the practical use of these forces."

Stennis, a long-time champion of a strong National Guard and Reserve program in this country, was strengthened in his position with support from most all members of both the Senate Armed Services and Appropriations Committees, who praised Stennis for his leadership on this question.

Stennis, a ranking member of the Armed Services Committee and Chairman of the Senate Preparedness Subcommittee, urged the Senate to adopt mandatory language in a Department of Defense Appropriations bill requiring that the National Guard be kept at 400,000, and the Army Reserves at a strength of 360,000 in Fiscal year 1963.

The Stennis floor action followed Appropriations Committee action which a few days ago approved the "no-reduction" levels for the Guard and Reserves.

The Secretary of Defense recently recommended a reduction in these Reserve components of the nation, which would have forced the loss of some 14 National Guard and Reserve units throughout Mississippi.

Stennis recalled a visit earlier this year to Fort Polk, La., where he said he "Saw 21,000 men on active duty as a part of the Berlin call-up, and every one of them, from the privates to the general were National Guardsmen or Reserves. Not a single Regular was among them."

In other debate on the defense appropriation bill today, Stennis went on record in favor of funding "full weapons system" for the B-70 manned bomber program.

Stennis recalled the last year the Appropriations Committee allowed $400 million for the B-70 program but the Department of Defense refused to spend the funds for development of the aircraft.

In still another action recently, Stennis supported the program for appropriation of funds for construction of another aircraft carrier of the Forrestal class. Stennis told the Senate, "In limited war or cold wars, the aircraft carrier force provides a most important and unique capability. To meet our commitments around the world we believe a modern force of attack carriers is required."

NEWSPAPER CLINIC AT OLE MISS

JUNE 25-JULY 6

UNIVERSITY, Miss.—High school and junior college editors from four states will attend the annual scholastic newspaper clinic at Ole Miss June 25-July 6.

The ten-day period of intensive instruction will be under the direction of S. Gale Deitley, editor of the Calhoun County Journal. Special lecturers will include Dr. Jere Hoar and Dr. Sam Talbert of the Ole Miss Department of Journalism; Ed Meek and Jack Cofield of the University News Service; Walter Hurt, publisher of Ole Miss daily newspaper, The Mississippi; Hunt Howell, editor of the Panolian; and Thatcher Welt, editor of the Greenwood Commonwealth.

For the third year, students of the clinic will publish a laboratory newspaper. They will do all work from reporting and photography to final production work.

"There is no comparable short course in the United States. A model city room is set up in the air-conditioned Continuation Center at Ole Miss. All work from advertising layout to editing is realistic," Dr. Talbert said.

"In addition to being an outstanding newspaper editor the head instructor, Mr. Denley, has had six years experience in guiding high school newspaper editors," Dr. Talbert said.

At the final banquet awards will be made to clinic students who make superior progress in reporting, editing, photography, and advertising layout.

The program as released last spring has been changed according to Dr. Talbert. The deadline for application has been extended to June 20; and, for the first time, the clinic has been opened to students from Tennessee, Alabama, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Clinic students may obtain details from the Department of Conferences and Institutes, University of Mississippi, Jackson.

watermelon cutting, free movies, swimming, and a party is planned for the clinic students. Students will live in dormitories under the supervision of chaperons.

Logue On Hospital
Convention Program
June 25-27

Jackson, Miss.—The 31st annual convention of the Mississippi Hospital Association and 11th Annual Merchandise Mart to be held June 25-27 in Biloxi is expected to attract over 700 people from Hospitals and Health Organizations throughout Mississippi along with visitors and guests from Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee and Louisiana.

Registration will begin Monday at 8:00 A.M. with programs planned for the members of the Hospital Governing Boards and the Accountants. Other groups meeting concurrently, with programs to begin on Tuesday are Medical Record Librarians, Nurse Anesthetists, Hospital Auxiliaries and the Mississippi Catholic Hospital Conference.

The American Hospital Association's program will get underway when President H. Dean Andrews, Vicksburg, calls the meeting of the house of Delegates to order at 10:00 A.M. Tuesday morning. Speaker of the House, Robert A. Ivy, Columbus will conduct this business session. Pertinent information effecting Hospitals will be brought to the attention of Delegates by Richard H. Malone, Natchez; W. L. Jaquith, M. D., Whiffield; Charles N. Payne, Jr., Hattiesburg; Charles W. Flynn, Jackson; Richard C. Williams, Jackson; Harry Cutler, Meridian; Cyrus C. Eaves, Starkville; R. M. Castle, Meridian; and Reed B. Hogan, Clarksdale.

Paul J. Pryor, Jackson, will call the afternoon session to order at 2:30 P.M. "In quest of health." A new approach to the role of the hospital in community life will be presented by J.P. Murphy, Montgomery, Alabama. A noted authority on radio communications, Robert N. watermelon cutting, free movies, swimming, and a party is planned for the clinic students. Students will live in dormitories under the supervision of chaperons.

Dallas, Texas will demonstrate "hospital radio communications in time of disaster."

The main social function during the convention will be the "awards and recognition" Banquet on Tuesday night. Andrews will preside and make presentations to individuals and institutions for outstanding services rendered the public during the past year. Installation of the new president and Board members will conclude the evenings program.

The highlight of the Wednesday morning session, presided over by B.G. Horton, Booneville, will be an explanation of "Hospital law - It's impact and importance" by one of the nation's most outstanding Attorneys in the hospital field, John F. Harty, Harty is Director of the Health Law Center, University of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

The final session on Wednesday afternoon will be devoted to concurrent Buzz sessions exploring and seeking possible solutions to Internal Hospital problems. Discussants for these sessions will be Lowery Woodall, Jackson; Harry C. Cutler, Meridian; T.O. Logue, Jr., Bay St. Louis; Sister M. Hildegard, Vicksburg; Maurice Hill, Ripley; Ray Weeks, Okolona; Roy Myers, Greenville; S. Earl Grimes, Biloxi.

As a part of Cancer Progress Year, the American Cancer Society is stressing the fact that about 700,000 cancer patients, diagnosed and treated in the last five years, will live to enter the ranks of those saved. This means that there are 1,800,000 Americans cured of cancer, but 700,000 will not be formally listed as saved until they have been free of symptoms five years after treatment.

READING CLINIC AT USM FOR JR. HIGH
STUDENTS JULY 9-13

HATTIESBURG, Miss.—The nationally known Reading Clinic at the University of Southern Mississippi will offer for the first time this year a course of Reading and Study Methods for Junior High School Students, July 9-13.

This one-week short course is actually a result of the success of the annual Pre-College Developmental Reading Course for high school students which has been held at the University for the past five years. Following requests from many parents to inaugurate a similar course for younger students, the new course will be started this year.

Dr. Ralph C. Staiger, director of the Reading Clinic at Southern who is recognized as one of the leading figures in this field nationally, will direct the course.

Assisting Dr. Staiger will be Miss Mildred Ball, a graduate student in the Reading Clinic.

This will be a booster course for the Reading Clinic.

The Reading Clinic, located in the new building, cost $10,000 to be built per student.

For more information contact Dr. Ralph C. Staiger, director of the Reading Clinic, Box 100, Southern Station, Hattiesburg, Miss.

Students will learn how to approach a reading task with maximum efficiency during the five sessions, which will be held during the morning hours each day.

U. S. ARMY OFFERS SECURITY TRAINING TO YOUNG MEN

Moral, physical and mental security, plus technical and professional training, along with actual experience, are offered young men by the modern U. S. Army. The sum total of this is financial security, according to Sgt. Jones, U. S. Army Recruiter for Hancock County.

Qualified young men enlisting in the Army can have opportunities for continued advancement and continued growth of income. By pursuing an Army career for only twenty years, they can retire mature and well-rounded individuals with little loss of skill and experience.

FOUR COUNTY 4-H CLUB MEMBERS AT CONFERENCE

Four Hancock County 4-H Club members are delegates to the statewide 4-H Junior Leadership Training Conference this week at Mississippi State University.

They are Otecia Ladner, Linda Dunn, Edna Ferguson, Henry Heitzmann.

The Hancock County delegates were accompanied to Mississippi State by John W. Smith, Associate County Agent.

Two boys and two girls from each Mississippi county are eligible to attend the annual conference.

The delegates are winners in a statewide competition conducted by personnel of the Mississippi Agricultural Extension Service as part of the 4-H Junior Leadership Training Program and are selected on the basis of their records in 4-H Club work.

Mrs. Alden Mauffray, chairman of the sale of religious articles during the recent mission, presented the treasurer a check covering profits from the sale.

Mrs. A. K. Martinovich read convention data relative to retreats held at Xavier Hall, Pass Christian.

Mrs. Stella Gex, chairman, was thanked for preparing the luncheon which was served to the 33 members and guests present.

She was assisted by Mesdames Bernard Farrelly, E. P. Larroux,

E. M. Brignac, O. W. Delph,

George Stevenson, and Earl L. Zama and Miss Kathleen Renshaw.

The next meeting will be held in September.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Tidbury were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tidbury Jr. and children Scott, Mary Beth and Penny of Morgan City, La.

Weekend guests of Mrs. A. P. Smith and family were Dr. Charles Wascom and Miss Mildred Fagan of New Orleans.

Guests last Friday of Dean and Mrs. James Robert were Mrs. George Robert, Mrs. Walter Robert, Mrs. Humphrey Turner of Baton Rouge and Mrs. Carleton Phillips of El Dorado, Ark. Coming over for the weekend will be Dean Robert's sister, Miss Alice Robert of New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Farr and children Sharon, Scott and Kellye have returned to their home in Baton Rouge after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Farr. Also visiting in the Farr home last week were Mrs. Farr's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Corley, of New Iberia, La.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Goldman are back home from Waterproof, La., where they attended funeral services for Mr. Goldman's brother, Harry T. Goldman Sr., who died Sunday, June 10.

Mrs. Michael Egan, son Mike and daughter Kinta, arrived Sunday from Washington, D.C., to spend the summer months with her mother, Mrs. A. P. Smith, and family.

Mrs. Gideon T. Stanton Jr., Eighth Grade teacher at Christ Episcopal Day School last session, is spending the summer in New Orleans.

The 25 Couples Club met Saturday night at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club with Mr. and Mrs. Orlis Winnard and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Adams as hosts.

Jeanne Rutherford, who is a member of Aunt-Jane's Letter Club, accompanied by her brother Jimmy, attended a club picnic Saturday at Pontchartrain Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Johnson have as their guests this week their daughters, Mrs. Delos Watson, nee Betty Ruth Johnson, Mr. Watson and children, Delos, Lauren, John and Edward of Oscoba, Mich.; Mrs. M. L. Richardson, the for Norman Johnson, S/Sgt. Richardson and children, Ray, David, Marg and Mike of Homestead, Florida; and Mrs. William M. Barrett, nee Carol Johnson, Mr. Barrett and their daughter Julie of Fenton, Mo. They were joined over the weekend by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Johnson and Patricia Ann of New Orleans.

Sunday was the first time since 1955 that the family was able to be together at the same time. Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ruckman will make their home in Dayton, Ohio.

The bride, a graduate of St. Joseph Academy, attended Loyola University of the South, New Orleans; she was a member of Our Lady of the Gulf School faculty last session.

Lt. Ruckman, a graduate of St. Louis University High School, attended General Motors Institute, Flint, Michigan, where he major-man, Robert Heitzmann, brother of the bride, served as usher.

Mike Heitzmann, another brother of the bride, and Jo Monti served as altar boys.

Potted palms and white gladioli decorated the altars and tall white baskets of similar blossoms were on either side of the main altar. Potted palms trimmed the chandelier.

Professor Joseph Hemmersbach, organist, played a program of spiritual music during the Mass, and at the conclusion rendered "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" as the bride placed a bouquet on the altar of the Blessed Virgin.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza over taffeta fashioned on Princess lines with a front panel of large tucks. The back of the bouffant skirt, trimmed with appliques of lace, fell into a cathedral train. The bodice embroidered with lace appliques, embroidered in seed pearls, featured a square scalloped neckline rounded in the back and three-quarter length lace sleeves.

Her short veil of imported illusion was attached to a small cap of imported lace centered with a large silk organza rose. She carried a cascade of white gathered carnations and lilies of the valley centered with triple sugar bells and a bow of tulle and satin in the center with crystal candelabra holding white tapestries on either side. Footed crystal dishes of pale pink mint completed the table decor.

Miss Mary Jo Artigues kept the bride's register, and Miss Inez Favre presided at the punch bowl.

After the bride and groom cut the first slice of cake, it was served by Miss Udeli Favre.

Tea girls were Misses Melva Luke, Susan Rhodes, Margo Jacob, Judy Favre, Yvonne and Eran Artigues.

For traveling the bride chose an egg shell faille suit with bone accessories. A pale green flowered hat and a green cymbidium orchid corsage completed her attire.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ruckman will make their home in Dayton, Ohio.

The bride, a graduate of St. Joseph Academy, attended Loyola University of the South, New Orleans; she was a member of Our Lady of the Gulf School faculty last session.

Lt. Ruckman, a graduate of St. Louis University High School, attended General Motors Institute, Flint, Michigan, where he majored in mechanical engineering. He is presently stationed at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Lillian Querry, New Orleans; Mrs. Adelaide Sternecker, Kansas City, Mo.; Miss Anna Marie Villalobos, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Parker, Mrs. Joseph Benigno and Mrs. Stanley Benigno, all of Pass Christian; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cain, Gulfport; Mrs. Betty Ledet and Mrs. Redis Niolet, Pass Christian.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ruckman will make their home in Dayton, Ohio.

MR. AND MRS. BILLY DALE SILLS

Sills-Favre

Miss Marie Rosary Favre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edward Favre of Kiln, Miss., became the bride of Billy Dale Sills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Sills of Jackson, Miss., in a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Church of the Annunciation, Kiln.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a floor length gown of silk organza and imported lace. The fitted bodice of lace was re-embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. It featured a scalloped neckline and long sleeves with tiny buttons ending in points over the hands. A lace panel embellished with seed pearls and sequins trimmed the front of the bouffant skirt. Her finger-tip veil of imported illusion fell from a small train of seed pearls and sequins.

The bride's table, covered with a white linen cloth, held the five-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked by silver branched candelabra holding white tapers. Fern and white daisies completed the decorations.

Mrs. Victor Lind, organist, played the processional and recessional and a number of selections during the ceremony. The bride, escorted by her father, wore a floor length gown of silk organza and imported lace. The fitted bodice of lace was re-embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. It featured a scalloped neckline and long sleeves with tiny buttons ending in points over the hands. A lace panel embellished with seed pearls and sequins trimmed the front of the bouffant skirt. The bride's table, covered with a white linen cloth, held the five-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, flanked by silver branched candelabra holding white tapers. Fern and white daisies completed the decorations.

Mrs. Bernard Curet of New Orleans, aunt of the bride, presided at the cake table and Misses Paula Reynolds and Myrna Faye Necaise of Kiln served the punch. The bride's register was kept by Miss Kay Parrish of Jackson, cousin of the bridegroom.

For traveling, the bride chose a gold colored three piece suit, brown hat and beige accessories.

She carried a bouquet of lily of the valley centered with a white orchid and an heirloom mother of pearl rosary.

Mrs. Jimmy Ray Hoda of Tacoma, Washington, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids and junior bridesmaids were Misses Kathy and Elizabeth Favre, sisters of the bride; Darlene Cuevas served as flower girl.

The matron of honor and bridesmaid wore ice blue organza street length dresses fashioned with bell shaped skirts, fitted bodices and pleated necklines.

Their headpieces were small blue velvet bands with short veils and they carried cascades of white sweetheart roses.

The junior maid and flower girl wore frocks of ice blue organza fashioned with bouffant skirts and matching velvet headbands. The maid carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and the flower girl carried a white basket of blossoms.

Jerry Simmons of Magnolia, Miss., served as his cousin's best man, and groomsman were Jimmy Cook of Biloxi; Mrs. Larry Leader, Mrs. Lee Fuente and daughter, Picayune; Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Simmons, Mrs. L. L. Blackman, Jerry and Jimmy Simmons, Magnolia, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cliburn, Miss Nancy Cliburn, New Haven, Miss.; Mrs. H. H. Parrish, Miss Kay Parrish, Paul Sullivan, Scott Farmer and Robert Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sills all of Jackson.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Curet, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Curet, all of New Orleans; and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Cook of Biloxi; Mrs. Larry Leader, Mrs. Lee Fuente and daughter, Picayune; Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Simmons, Mrs. L. L. Blackman, Jerry and Jimmy Simmons, Magnolia, Miss.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cliburn, Miss Nancy Cliburn, New Haven, Miss.; Mrs. H. H. Parrish, Miss Kay Parrish, Paul Sullivan, Scott Farmer and Robert Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Sills all of Jackson.

The Jurden Johnson's of New Orleans spent the weekend with their daughter Jeanne, and son Jurden Jr. of Clermont.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lohmann and daughter Joyce have returned to New Orleans after spending a few days in their lovely summer cottage on Oak St. in Clermont.
